

To apply for an Australian passport for your child, at least one parent must bring the following original documents to the appointment:

- Completed Overseas Passport Application form
 - It can be completed on the passports website and printed out. Alternatively, blank forms are available at the Embassy.

If the child was born in Australia

- Full Australian birth certificate
- and
- One of the following documents as proof of the child’s citizenship:
 - The child’s Australian passport issued on/after 01/01/2000 with at least 2 years validity
 - One parent's full Australian birth certificate (parent born prior to 20/08/1986)
 - One parent's Australian passport (issued on/after 20/08/1986, with a minimum of 2 years validity and valid at the time of the child’s birth)
 - One parent's Australian citizenship certificate (issued prior to the child’s birth)

If the child was born outside Australia

- Australian citizenship certificate
- and
- Foreign birth certificate
 - If the certificate was not issued in English, an English translation must also be provided. The translation must be done by the issuing authority, one of the Embassy’s accredited translation offices or a NAATI accredited translator.
-
- Current passport of the lodging parent(s) plus ID that shows their current address
 - At least three recent photos that comply with the photograph requirements
 - The guarantor must sign the back of one of your photos after writing “This is a true photo of ‘applicant’s full name’”. Guarantor requirements
 - The child’s previous passport (if applicable)
 - Evidence of change of name of child and/or parent(s) (if applicable)
 - If a parents name on his/her current passport differs from his/her name on the child’s birth certificate, and there is no official document to support the discrepancy in the name (i.e. a marriage certificate or a change of name certificate), the parent will need to complete and sign the attached declaration form (B11) in order to explain the reason for the discrepancy.
 - Please refer to the Children and Parental Consent brochure at the following link: <https://www.passports.gov.au/Pages/brochure-children-and-parental-consent.aspx>
 - The passport application fee and overseas surcharge
 - Total fee for children aged under 16 years is AUD 212 (application fee AUD142 plus overseas surcharge AUD53)
 - Total fee for children aged 16-17 years is AUD 357 (application fee AUD282 plus overseas surcharge AUD53)

- Fees are only collected in Egyptian Pounds (cash or credit/debit card) according to the exchange rate at the time of lodging the application.

If your child is aged 16-17 years, they must attend the interview with the lodging parent(s) and will be issued a 10 year validity passport.

Allow up to 3 weeks to receive the new passport following receipt of all necessary documents, information and fees.

Should you have any further enquiries, please do not hesitate to contact us.