

Child Visa (101, 102, 117) Application Checklist – Cairo

The service standard processing time for a Child application is 14 months. This is an aspirational standard and is measured from the date we receive a complete application.

How to apply

Child visa applications can be couriered to the following address:

Home Affairs
Australian Embassy
World Trade Centre,
1191 Corniche El-Nile,
Boulaq, Cairo, Egypt

To ensure you have lodged a complete application, you must:

- answer all the questions on the application form; include your residential address and provide contact details (including email). Do not leave any answers blank, write 'N/A' if the question does not apply to you;
- include all supporting documents and information as requested on this checklist. Please note that Department of Home Affairs may ask for other documents during the processing of the application;
- sign the application and sponsorship forms; and
- pay the visa application charge. <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/Trav/Visa/Visa-1>

More information is available. See: <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/Trav/Brin/Chil>

Use this checklist to ensure that you have included all necessary documentation to support your claims and include the completed checklist when you lodge your visa application.

- Handwritten forms must be completed legibly and in English.
- All documents not in English must be accompanied by an English translation

All visa applicants	Tick if included
Form 47CH and Form 40CH (visa application and sponsorship forms)
Visa Application Charge
Copy of any used pages of current and previous passports for all applicants
2 recent Passport sized photographs of applicants and sponsor with names on the back
Birth certificates for all applicants showing both parents' names. If unable to obtain a birth certificate, provide the relevant pages of at least one of the following documents: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • family book/family registration certificate showing both parents' names • identification document issued by the government • court-issued documents that verify your identity.
Original police certificates for all applicants aged 17 years and older from each country in which they have spent a total of 12 months or more in the last 10 years (since turning 16 years of age)
(if applicable) Evidence of any change of name and evidence of any previous names
Evidence that the sponsor is an Australian citizen, permanent resident or eligible New Zealand citizen .
If the child is an adopted child, the adoption papers .
Applicants who have spent 28 days or longer in Afghanistan, Cameroon, Equatorial Guinea, Ethiopia, Iraq, Israel, Nigeria, Pakistan, Somalia and/or Syria after 4 May 2014 must provide polio vaccination certificates .

If the visa applicant is less than 18 years old	Tick if included
Penal clearances from each country (including Australia) in which the sponsor and their current spouse or de facto partner has spent a total of 12 months or more in the last 10 years (since turning 16 years old)
For children travelling without one or both parents, provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a completed form 1229 Consent to grant an Australian visa to a child under the age of 18 years; with a copy of each non-travelling parent's ID and contact details for each non-travelling parent; or a valid court order issued to the sponsor which permits them to permanently take the child to Australia
If the visa applicant is 18 years or older	Tick if included
If the child is a full-time student, evidence of current enrolment and active participation in a post-secondary course of study. Provide a statement explaining any gaps in study.
If the child has a disability, evidence from a qualified medical practitioner that the child has total or partial loss of bodily or mental functions and this stops them from working.
Evidence that the child is financially dependent on their sponsor for their basic needs of food, shelter and clothing, and how long this support has been provided.
(if applicable) The national identity card of all applicants.
(if applicable) Military service discharge certificate
If the visa applicant is an orphan relative	Tick if included
Documents to show the child's family relationship to the sponsor
If parent/s are deceased, death certificate/s. If parent/s whereabouts are unknown, evidence of how long they have been missing and what efforts have been made to contact or find them. If parent/s are permanently incapacitated, evidence showing why they are unable to care for the child
Evidence of the child's current care arrangements, including who is looking after the child, for how long and where.
Evidence that the sponsor has the capacity to provide financial support and accommodation to the child until they turn 18 years of age.

.....
Applicant Name

.....
Signature

.....
Date